ADAM GOODRUM

Focusing on furniture, product, and interior design, Goodrum delivers progressively original, intelligent and award-winning collections, highly regarded for commercial and retail applications. His passion for design had sparked since his graduation in Industrial Design from the University of Technology Sydney.

Characterized by invention and curiosity, his practice goes side by side with the rigor and integrity in his aesthetic and approach. His work is inherently elegant, often underpinned by a poetic union between art and mathematics.

Goodrum's collaboration with local and international companies such as Cappellini, Alessi has been showcased throughout the world and is collected by museums in Australia and abroad.

At present, he is half of Adam&Arthur, a practice exploring the nexus of traditional straw marquetry craftsmanship and contemporary object design.

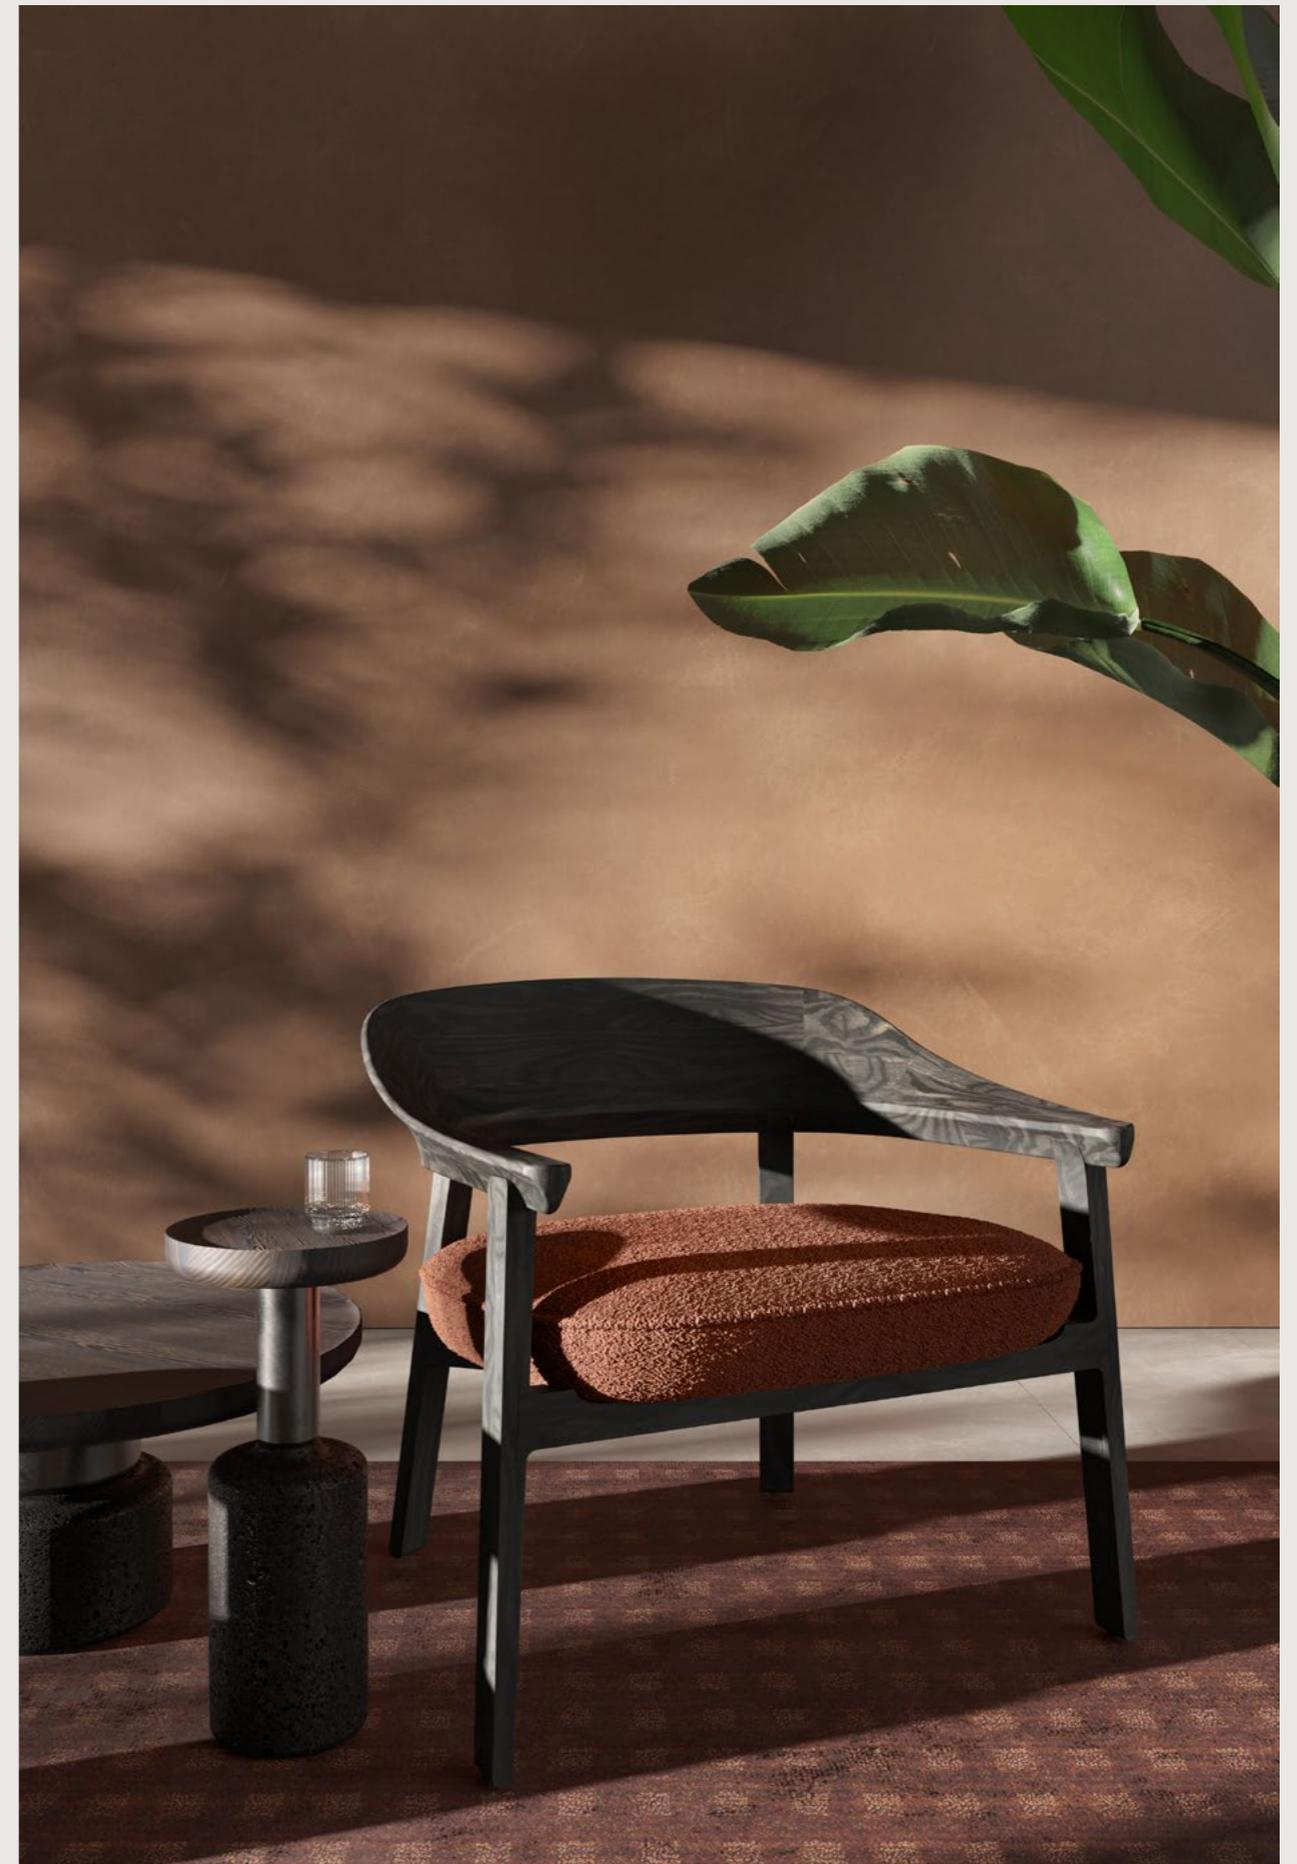

"I loved art and mathematics in high school, and I think both of these are folded into furniture design: geometry creates form and art creates expression."

COLLETTE COLLECTION

Collette was born from the desire to create a wooden furnishing with the glow of artistic handcrafting, through which the person using the chair can get a sense of immaculate purity as well as warmth generated from both the material and the use of the chair in everyday life. The versatile and refined design of the Collette Collection is exemplified in its majestic structure, elegant appearance, and comfortable feel, resulting in a diverse range of offerings including lounge chairs, dining chairs, and stools.

Through a harmony of verticals and curves, the Collette chair offers an abstract reference to the Vietnamese traditional script, and a love letter to the craftsmanship of timber. The design's sweeping backrest forms a collar that's instantly distinctive and inviting. Extended to swooping ridges of the armrests and their rounded ends, the frame provides ample support for ease and comfort.

Collette Dining Chairs, designed with 2 variants: with and without armrest, epitomize the collection's refined design and exceptional comfort, making it a versatile and elegant addition to any dining space. Their sleek and minimalistic aesthetic is accentuated by the collection's signature joinery details, which seamlessly blend the vertical lines and curvy joints, creating a pleasing geometric rhythm. Their backrests offer excellent support and maximum comfort, making it perfect for long, leisurely meals or intimate gatherings.
